

Name: Deyala H. Altarawneh.

Courses Taught (Four semesters prior to current visit):

- ARCH0902463 Landscape architecture.
- ARCH0902353 Urban planning (1).
- ARCH093245 4 Urban planning (2).
- ARCH0942324 Architectural design (4).
- ARCH0902423 Architectural design (5).
- ARCH0942113 Free Hand Sketching (1).
- ARCH0932114 Free Hand Sketching (2).
- ARCH0902595 Graduation Project Thesis Research.
- ARCH0902597 Graduation Project Design

Educational Credentials:

- B.Arch, University of Jordan, 2008.
- M.Arch, University of Jordan, 2011.
- PhD in Urban and Regional Studies, University of Birmingham, UK, 2017.

Teaching Experience:

- Teacher Assistant, University of Jordan, 2009-2012.
- Assistant Professor, University of Jordan, 2017- present.

Professional Experience:

- Junior Architect, MK Associates, Amman, Jordan. 2008-2009.
- STEM ambassador, UK, 2013-2017.
- Quality and Diversity representative, Post Graduate Office, University of Birmingham, UK. 2013-2017.
- Research group secretary, University of Birmingham, UK. 2014.
- Assistant Director for the Innovation and Entrepreneurship Center, University of Jordan, 2018-present.
- Counselor and Advisor for the Women In Engineering Affinity Group (WIE-IEEE), 2018- present.

Licenses/Registration:

- Jordan Engineering Association (JEA) Registration#

Selected Publications and Recent Research:

- Sustainable Brownfields Redevelopment and Tools of Computer Aided Design - An inductive inquest on the case of Amman, Jordan. Parametricism Vs. Materialism: Evolution of Digital Technologies for Development [8th ASCAAD Conference Proceedings ISBN 978-0-9955691-0-2] London (United Kingdom) 7-8 November 2016, pp. 567-476.
- Marginal space industry in Amman; Politics and dynamics of socio-spatial planning. Interdisciplinary:

Professional Memberships:

- IEEE.