

Contact details:

Telephone:
0799675105

Email:
deyalatarawneh@gmail.com

Qualification:
BArch, University of Jordan, 2008.
MArch, University of Jordan, 2011.
PhD, University of Birmingham, 2017.

Bio:

Deyala Tarawneh is an architect, urbanist and human geographer. Her work focuses on issues related to brownfields rehabilitation, temporary urbanism and spatial justice. Deyala holds a BArch and MArch in architecture both obtained from the University of Jordan and a PhD in Urban and regional planning obtained from the University of Birmingham, UK. Deyala has a particular interest in urban resilience forms and the right to urbanisation issues, in her work she constantly attempts to test Western claimed concepts in Middle-Eastern contexts more particularly in the case of Amman-Jordan.

Publications:

- Sustainable brownfield redevelopment and tools of Computer Aided Design (CAD). Parametricism vs. Materialism: Evolution of digital technologies for development. The Arab Society for Computer Aided Architectural Design (ASCAAD), 8th conference, 2016, London. ISBN: 978-0-9955691-0-2
- Marginal space industry in Amman; Politics and dynamics of socio-spatial planning. Interdisciplinary: The palimpsest of culture. 'Spatiality and temporality' international conference. 2015, Warsaw. ISBN: 978-83-943632-3-9
- Brownfield landscapes of Amman: defining typologies of unnamed terrains. Transformation of the urban character of Arab Cities since the late last century conference. 2015, Amman. ISBN: 978-1-904839-83-5